PACKING FOR YOUR RAIL VACATION

Packing for vacation can prove challenging, but some simple planning can help you avoid most pitfalls.

First, get acquainted with the latest wrinkle-free clothing. That way you'll never have to worry about looking rumpled or waste time ironing. And, wherever possible, pack clothes that are lightweight, so you're not left lugging heavy bags; Europe, charming and old world, is often bereft of escalators and elevators!

Other pointers?

Extend your travel wardrobe without adding suitcases by choosing one main color and a couple of accent colors that can be mixed and matched multiple ways. Well-chosen accessories make great wardrobe builders, too, letting a simple outfit go from day into evening. Also, if you travel with a companion, make sure to carry a change of clothes for each other so you won't be entirely out of luck if one bag goes missing.

For answers to all your packing challenges...

...turn to TravelSmith, the catalog that's filled with uncommon travel clothes for men and women. Almost 400 items, all with the kind of good looks and carefree ease that let you traverse the globe with confidence.

TravelSmith also makes exceptional luggage, totes, and tools to assure the most comfort and least hassle when away from home.
