

High Speed Trains

Discover why so many travelers prefer high-speed train travel to air travel. Enjoy extraordinary comfort, amenities and efficiency as you're whisked from city to city. With operating speeds between 135 – 200 mph, and the benefit of arriving city center, why would anyone travel any other way? High-speed train tickets include reserved seats. Have a railpass? No Problem! Just get a passholder fare and sit back and relax as the train speeds you to your destination.

Artesia: France – Italy

Serving France and Italy, Artesia's primary destinations are Paris, Lyon, Turin and Milan. During your journey, stroll to the bar car for a beverage or snack as you watch the scenery through the picture windows.

Paris – Milan	6h 40m
Paris – Torino	5h 30m
Lyon – Milan	4h 55m
Lyon – Torino	3h 35m

AVE and Talgo 200: Spain

Travel in Spain is a breeze with both the AVE and Talgo 200 service. AVE takes you from Madrid to the historical Andalusia regions of Cordoba and Seville and has just opened the much anticipated high-speed line to Barcelona. Talgo 200 offers continuing service to Cadiz and Malaga in great comfort.

Madrid – Barcelona	2h 35m
Madrid – Cordoba	1h 45m
Madrid – Malaga	2h 40m
Madrid – Seville	2h 30m

Eurostar: England-France-Belgium

More than a decade ago, Eurostar forever changed the way people traveled between London, Paris and Brussels. Recently Eurostar moved to St. Pancras, its new station in the heart of London. This momentous occasion celebrated the launch of Great Britain's first high-speed rail line and further reduced travel times between London, Paris and Brussels by 20 minutes.

London – Paris	2hr 15 m
London – Brussels	1hr 51m
London – Marne La Vallee	2h 34m

ICE: Germany

Focused primarily in Germany, with service to areas of Switzerland and Austria also available, the ICE connects all major cities such as Frankfurt and Hamburg in just under 3.5 hours. With all that it has to offer it is no wonder that the ICE is the backbone of Germany's long distance train system.

Munich – Salzburg	1h 30m
Berlin – Frankfurt	4h 10m
Frankfurt – Munich	3h 10m
Munich – Berlin	5h 38m

Talgo Day: France - Spain

International routes between France and Spain are well served by Talgo Day trains. Travel from the south of France to the Mediterranean destinations of Barcelona, Valencia and Alicante.

Montpellier – Barcelona	4h 15m
Narbonne – Barcelona	3h 35m
Perpignan – Barcelona	2h 50m

TGV

The TGV network is the cornerstone of the European high-speed rail network connecting France to London, Brussels, Geneva, Lausanne, Zurich, Torino, Milan, and more. So whether you ride the rails of Lyria (TGV France-Switzerland), the super modern TGV Est into the Champagne region, Switzerland and Germany; or the Geneva-Med line from Switzerland to the south of France, you will be delighted by the speed and comforted by the ease in getting to your destination.

Paris – Avignon	2h 38m
Paris – Marseille	3h
Paris – Geneva	3h 25m
Paris – Reims	45m
Paris – Strasbourg	2h 20m
Paris – Basel	3h 20m
Paris – Frankfurt	3h 50m

Trenitalia

Designed for travelers seeking high standards of comfort and speed, these trains are modern and stylish. Trenitalia international routes cruise through the majestic alps into Switzerland while the Eurostar Italia domestic routes hit all the major cities of Italy.

Florence – Milan	2h 55m
Rome – Florence	1h 30m
Rome – Venice	4h 30m
Florence – Venice	2h 40m
Milan – Zurich	3h 38m

Thalys

This distinctive red train links Paris to Amsterdam, Brussels, Cologne and Dusseldorf. There are 18 Thalys trains per day that take you from Paris to Brussels in under 90 minutes. With this kind of service and frequency your best option is Thalys.

Brussels – Paris	1h 22m
Amsterdam – Brussels	2h 50m
Paris – Amsterdam	4h 9m
Paris – Cologne	3h 50m

Artesia

Ave

Eurostar

ICE

Talgo

TGV

Trenitalia

Thalys

